2006 DUNLOP BRITISH OPEN MASTERS PLAYING FORMAT AND CONDITIONS OF ENTRY

The 2006 Dunlop British Open Masters will be played to England Squash regulations and disciplinary procedures and will comprise Men's Championships across O35, O40, O45, O50, O55, O60, O65 & O70 age group categories, and Women's Championships across O35, O40, O45, O50 & O55 age group categories.

Men may only enter one Masters age group. Women may enter more than one Masters age group. International scoring (to 9) and 19" tins will be used for all Masters Championships.

All players must have reached the denoted minimum age on 18th September 2006 and may be required to supply proof of age.

Matches will be played between the 14th and 18th September, although the organisers reserve the right to alter the playing schedule and amalgamate age groups and plate competitions, subject to entry.

Players losing their first match will be eligible to compete in the Championships plate events.

All players must complete an Official Entry Form and an entry fee of £30.00 per age group category must accompany each entry form together with a stamped addressed envelope. All players will be eligible for free admission, subject to availability, to all 2006 Dunlop British Open Men's and Women's main draw matches played on the all-glass show court. Additionally, all players will be eligible for 50% discount off all official event merchandise, details of which will be available from the Official Retailer, sportdiscount.com™, during the Championships.

No prize money will be payable for 2006 Dunlop British Open Masters events.

Withdrawal from the Championships must be notified to the Competition Manager as soon as possible by telephone with a valid reason. Your reason for withdrawal should then be confirmed in writing to England Squash, National Squash Centre, Sportcity, Rowsley Street, Manchester M12 5FF (Fax +44 (0)161 231 4231) within seven days and in the event of injury, should be accompanied by a letter of explanation and a doctors certificate.

Competitors must report to the tournament desk at least 30 minutes before all of their scheduled start times. Players not reporting or unavailable at the appropriate time of their scheduled match start time are libel to be scratched.

All finalists are expected to attend the 2006 Dunlop British Open finals presentation to show courtesy to the Championships sponsors. Prizes will not be presented to players who are not in attendance at the finals presentation.

2006 Dunlop British Open Masters Competition Manager, Mr Chris Nutley.
